MEDICINAL

BACKACHE

Is only one of many distressing symptoms which point to the presence of womanly diseases. If women thoroughly understood the relation of the local womanly health to the general health, they would understand that backache, headache, nervousness, dizziness, faintness, and similar "feminine ailments," cannot be cured until the womanly health is established.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures diseases peculiar to women. It establishes regularity, dries the drains which weaken women, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. In curing these local diseases, it cures the system which they cause; backache, headache, dizziness, faintness, nervousness, and other ills peculiarly feminine.

Can't you eat? Others can. Latest improvements in Teeth. Our patent suction Never falls down.

Call and have a set with the above improvements. Old loose and ill-fitting plates corrected in fit, durability and comfort perfectly true to nature.

Dr. W. F. HUTCHINSON, Dentist. Corner Prince and Washington Streets, Office Formerly Occupied by Dr. Fawcett.

DEATH OF JOHN W. MCKAY.

Mr. John W. Mackay, the well-known American capitalist and president of the Commercial Cable Company, died yesterday evening in London.

He had not been well for some days, but his death was quite unexpected.

He had been suffering from the effects of London's excessive heat.

The deceased was born in Dublin, Ireland, November 28, 1831.

He came to America when a small boy, and for a number of years was employed in the office of William H. Webb, the famous ship builder, of New York.

Mr. Mackay was in Louisville, where he had made the nucleus of his fortune, at the outbreak of the gold fever in California.

When the emigration toward the Pacific coast began he was one of the first to become interested, and made up a party of about twenty-five ambitious and energetic young men like himself to migrate to the gold fields.

Within ten years he had made and lost a small fortune, and then in 1860 he left California for Nevada, where for a time he met with moderate success.

In 1872 the bonanza mines were discovered, and Mr. Mackay's fortune began to accumulate. These mines are a ledge of rocks in the Sierra Nevada Mountains, under what is now Virginia City.

Their deposits of silver and gold have proven so vast that the discovery was considered the most remarkable in the history of mining. Mr. Mackay owned two-fifths of these mines, double the share of any of those associated with him.

In 1873 the great silver vein was opened, and from one mine alone $150,000,000 in silver and gold were taken.

Mr. Mackay was a Roman Catholic, and was very generous to the church out of his vast wealth. He was also a liberal donor to other charities, and was the founder of an orphan asylum in Nevada City.

Mr. Mackay was a man highly respected for his business abilities, his remarkable energy, and his strict integrity.

In person he was an active, virile figure, erect and alert, reticent in manner, but courteous and dignified, and very much liked by those who knew him best.

Mr. Mackay's fortune ten years ago was estimated at $45,000,000. What it is now it is doubtful if he himself knew.

STORM IN BALTIMORE.

Twelve dead and a loss of property which it is now impossible to estimate, are the results of a sixty-four-mile gale which blew from the southwest across Baltimore and the neighboring counties yesterday.

The storm swooped down upon the city and bay at 1:25 p. m. At 1:45 the sun was again shining.

Most of the deaths resulted from drowning. At the time the storm broke the harbor was dotted with pleasure craft, and the river resorts crowded by throngs, who had sought to escape the heat of the city. The storm came up out of the southwest suddenly and with little warning, and blew for twenty minutes directly across the harbor.

The maximum rate of the wind was sixty-four miles an hour. Great clouds of dust came as the advance guard of the gale, to the accompaniment of thunder and lightning. Wind, however, was responsible for the loss of life and damage to property. Great trees that had withstood the winds of a half century were uprooted and their twisted trunks thrown bodily across the street car tracks, blocking traffic for hours. Roofs from blocks of houses sailed at times a hundred feet and fell in crumpled heaps upon other debris. Telephone and electric light wires were hopelessly entangled and many sections of the city were in darkness at night. Reports from the neighboring counties tell of heavy damage to the crops and fruit.

SCANDAL IN RICHMOND.—Richmond is apparently on the brink of a big municipal scandal, and the city is excited over it. The charge of bribery in the street committee is to undergo judicial instead of executive investigation. Judge Witt, of the Hustings Court, on Saturday summoned a special grand jury for the purpose. Commonwealth's Attorney D. C. Richardson is determined to probe it to the bottom, and is actively formulating his plan of procedure. Uncertainty has developed in several quarters, and it is believed that several of the city fathers will be implicated. Captain Gasser, who for many years has done a large part of the city's paving, started to testify engineer, Colonel Cuthbert, that he had given money to Mr. John M. King to secure city contracts, that he had also given money to other members of the street committee, and that he knew other contractors who had done the same thing, and intimated that instead of being bribed that it was to meet a species of blackmail placed upon them. Mr. King denied the charge, and Captain Gasser and two other contractors when called before the committee declined either to deny or affirm the charges.

THE SAME OLD STORY.

J. A. Kelly relates an experience similar to that which has happened in almost every neighborhood in the United States and has been told and re-told by thousands of others. He says: "Last summer I had an attack of dysentery and purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used according to directions and with entirely satisfactory results. The trouble was controlled much quicker than former attacks when I used other remedies." Mr. Kelly is a well known citizen of Henderson, N. C. For sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.

MOTHER ALWAYS KEEPS IT HANDY.

"My mother suffered a long time from distressing pains and general ill health due primarily to indigestion," says L. W. Spalding, Verona, Mo. "Two years ago I got her to try Kodol. She grew better at once and now at the age of seventy-six, eats anything she wants, remarking that she fears no bad effects as she has her bottle of Kodol handy." Don't waste time doctoring symptoms. Go after the cause. If your stomach is sound your health will be good. Kodol rests the stomach and strengthens the body by digesting your food. It is nature's own tonic. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.
